Where can I get an additional key?

You can request your access key from our sales team. The access key will then be handed over to you upon completion and you can use it without any problems. In addition, you will receive a key handover form on which your key number is noted so that you can provide us with accurate information in the event of loss. Defective access keys can also be replaced in the same way. To request new access keys or to report defective keys, please contact vertrieb@myloc.de.
