

vServer / Virtual Dedicated Server

Why do I see warnings in the device manager?

Device Manager occasionally lists warnings and unknown devices on Windows vServers because the virtualization technology we use does not work with hardware emulation and proprietary system drivers.

However, the warnings do not affect the stability and functionality of your vServer in any way. They also can not be removed or hidden from the Device Manager.

Unique solution ID: #1400

Author: Bettina Brauer

Last update: 2021-03-31 12:23